Congratulations on being accepted and admitted in the Masters of Business Administration program at Anderson University. In order for you to stay in the program you must abide by the United States government restrictions on your F1 Visa.

These restrictions are from § Sec. 214.2(f) Students in colleges, universities, seminaries, conservatories, academic high schools, elementary schools, other academic institutions, and in language training programs:

(6) (i) (G) “For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted if taken on-line or through distance education in a course that does not require the student’s physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class.”

(9) (i) “On campus work is limited to no more that 20 total hours per week while school is in session, inclusive of any work undertaken pursuant to a scholarship, fellowship, or assistantship.”
