Chronological Table of the Life of Dr. Annie Dove Denmark
President of Anderson College from 1928-1953

1897-1908. Organist of First Baptist Church of Goldsboro.

1904-1908. Student at Meredith College, member of student council, president of Philoeratian Literary Society.

1908. Received Artist's Diploma in piano, Meredith College.

1910-1916. Instructor of piano, Shorter College, teacher of Sunday School class of young women, Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, Rome, Georgia.

1917-1926. Instructor in piano and harmony, Anderson College, teacher of adult Sunday School class, First Baptist Church of Anderson.

1921. Student Chaugauqua Institute, Department of Religion, twelve summers.

1925. Miss Denmark receives A. B. degree from Anderson College.

1925-1928. Dr. John E. White, college president, names Miss Denmark dean of Women in 1925.

1928. Trustees elect Miss Denmark as president of Anderson College, a senior college for women, January 1.

Miss Denmark officiated for the first time as president at the formal opening of the college on September 12, 1928.

1929. Anderson College observes its first Founders Day celebration on February 14, 1929, in connection with the inauguration of Miss Denmark as the fifth president of Anderson College. The 1929 Founders Day introduced the traditional service observed annually to honor the founders of the college and to celebrate the birthday of the college whose charter was granted on February 14, 1911. Dr. E. W. Sikes, president of Clemson College, brought greetings from trustees. The decision to reorganize Anderson College as a junior college was made in 1929 and in that year the change was ratified by the Baptist Convention, meeting in Spartanburg.

Miss Denmark speaks at banquet in Raleigh, North Carolina on progress of women in the field of education during North Carolina Homecoming Week.

Miss Denmark speaks at State B. S. U. convention at Coker College.